If it goes one more season (or will it have to make it all the way thru 1909, John?), it will set a new record. ## Propaganda --

Berlin -- It was announced today by the Naval Ministry that unless the French do not remove their forces from the North Sea, the Third and Second Fleets, now stationed in Sweden and Northern Russia, will be decommissioned. It was stated that the need for them is no longer present, and that once the disengagement with France in the north is finished, only the First Fleet, which is stationed in Copenhagen, will be necessary to defend the Reich. ##### It has been suggested that the two fleets slated for the mothballs be used to protect the new German possessions in the Pacific and Asia. When asked if this might be done, the Ministry stated that it is "under consideration".

COIRE, 3009 builds -- GON (Huff): (B) A DoA; (B) A Lam; (B) A MiT; ARN: GM (E) A GM Note -- Har.

We overlooked one GON supply ctr (Wilderlands) in our supply center count in DPBA #32; with this s.ctr., Huff had 15; with the above builds, GON now has 15 units, ROHAN 13, and ARN 1; the victory criterion is 15, so Huff, as GONDOR, wins! (We should note here that we published the QUELLE, 3009 moves before the deadline, as all moves were in -- the first time we have purposely "jumped the gun" -- and the last, as Banks Mebane came in with a set of revisions at the last minute. We were going to revise the QUELLE moves, which would have given GON one less supply ctr. (14) and ARN one more (2), but Banks said to let the published moves stand. Thanks to Banks, FAA is now history!)
